Spring 95 e.v.

The Official Organ of H.O.O.R.

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

Words From the Overseer

Spring again.... Winter fades and the world revives.... We tacitly acknowledge the facts of this renewal, year after year and yet how long it has been since you have truly felt the spring within? How long has it been since you personally have realized a sense of continuity, a sense of connectedness, a sense of absorption into the process, which is a part of the magick of the season? We live on this undulating serpent woman-world and often, it seems, we do not become really inspired by the pageant which unfolds around us. Let us not allow this season and these realizations to pass us by this year. Let us seize the moment and become a celebrant in the mystery of the continuity of existence, let us meditate on the undulatory movements of this fantastic process, remembering what is said in Liber AL i 26.

EYE ON THE POMPOSITE

In past Eye on the Pomposite columns we have focused mostly on problems and or hostile forces that are outside our 'Circle' so to speak. There is an enemy that dwells within the Circle, however, and it is present whenever and wherever we gather. It's name?.... ourselves. The Master Therion once said of love between two persons 'love is two people looking in the same direction not at each other'.... The situation is really not that different when we deal with our fellows in the Lodge or Temple. Each of us in a Temple or Lodge setting is bound to other members through a bond of mutual acceptance of the principles of the Law of Thelema. As such we are ostensibly 'looking in the same direction'....

however when we spend lots of time looking at each other what generally happens, through boredom or through mean-spiritedness, is that others become a source for attack and or ridicule. When inward looking criticism leaves the healthy realms of amicability, cordiality and empathy and enters the drear quarters of spite and animosity, the roots of the tree of discord are shown to you. You have a choice; use the ax of your will to destroy those roots or enjoy the fruits of the branches of that poisonous tree. Which will you choose? Remember what is said in the Book of the Law "Success is your proof; courage is your armour" AL iii 46 ..... the success of your Temple or Lodge is your proof that harmonious interaction is occurring; discord, dissonance, contention and mischief are certain signs that something is wrong.... here is where the courage part comes in.... you will need it to look the enemy in the eye or in the mirror, as the case may be.... Remember these words of the Book of the Law though; "Fear not at all; fear neither men nor Fates, nor gods, nor anything." & "Nu is your refuge as Hadit your light; and I am the strength, force, vigour, of your arms." AL iii 17.

On Practices

I was recently asked concerning the things that a Temple or a Lodge might do to celebrate the Holy days. My first reply was of course a ritual reading of the appropriate chapter from Liber AL but there is so much more that inventive members can do to celebrate Our New Year. A feast of friends is an obvious event. But why not invite persons whom you meet during the course of your daily lives who seem, if not particularly interested in Thelema, to be of a temperament capable of enjoying the company of Gods. You will be surprised at the response that you get from these kinds of invitations. Much enthusiasm and community can be sparked through such simple sharing. Remember we do not proselytize and our primary goal at such events is to celebrate the particular feast or time with joy and beauty, but we may offer to share this joy and beauty with those who seem to us worthy in some way or the other. Leave the choosing of such individuals to your intuition, you never know how a king may have hablimented himself or herself. Reach out, as well, to the various magical communities that may flourish in your area, they also will respond with interest if you are perceived as being open and friendly. Remember to seek allies, it is easy to make enemies, so seek to make friends when possible. There are many facets of the magical community that are not hostile to Us, they are simply a little tired of so-called Thelemites being so stupidly pompous. Just so, there are many facets of the community (non-magical, for lack of a better term) which are not hostile to Us. These types simply do not know enough about Us to form an opinion; and in lieu of data to the contrary find it simpler to label Us as "Lunatic Fringe". This can all change if you and your Temple or Lodge attempt to change it. We have many more good qualities in common with these types than they normally realize and the burden of proof is more or less on Us. Remember that we prove ourselves through our actions, so act the part and the Gods who may sleep around you will waken gladden our company. Good Feasting to you ALL!

* We are a society of individuals seeking to improve the planet by application of the principles propounded in the Book of the Law.
